2017 Asheboro High School Athletics Hall of Fame Inductees to be Honored

ASHEBORO – Asheboro High School is pleased to announce the 2017 Athletics Hall of Fame inductees. This is the 14th year of the Hall of Fame, first established as part of Asheboro City Schools centennial celebrations. The official induction will take place on Friday, September 29th during half-time of the Asheboro High School and Southern Alamance football game.

This year's inductees are:

Sam Key - Class of 1979
Doug Pugh - Class of 1975
Rob Stover - Class of 1997
Boys Basketball Team – 1975-76

Prior to the football game the public is invited to a reception in honor of the inductees to be held in the Asheboro High School gymnasium from 6 - 7 p.m. The community is welcome to attend the reception, the game, and the induction ceremony.

“This is a great way to honor outstanding athletes that helped build our Blue Comet legacy of excellence,” said Brian Saunders, Asheboro High School principal. “It is also important for our young athletes to see how the impact of what they accomplish today has the potential to live on throughout history.”

The Asheboro High School Athletics Hall of Fame is a project of Asheboro High School in cooperation with the Asheboro Blue Comet Booster Club. A permanent “Honor Roll” of inductees is located in the lobby of the gymnasium. Plaques will be presented to each inductee (or their designee) at half-time of the football game.
