Asheboro High School DECA Students Place in State Competition

ASHEBORO – Several Asheboro High School students from the DECA Club had the opportunity to compete in the North Carolina DECA competition March 9-11. The competition was held at the Koury Convention Center in Greensboro. DECA is an international association of high school and college students and teachers of marketing, management, and entrepreneurship in business, finance, hospitality and marketing, sales, and service. The organization prepares leaders and entrepreneurs for careers and education in marketing, finance, hospitality, management, and other business areas.

Asheboro High School students Ashley Holland, Consuelo Perez, Dylan Hoffman, and Preston Russell earned medals for top individual role plays.

Andrew Cox, Emily Hill, Dylan Hoffman, Ashley Holland, Skyy Nunn, Conseulo Perez, Preston Russell, and Desmond Trogdon were recognized for proficiency on their test and role play scores combined.
