

MONDAY MUSINGS

Marvelous Mustangs Boys Only Book Club kick-off

Last Monday, McCrary held their first meeting of the Marvelous Mustangs Boys Only Book Club. This club meets every other Monday from 5:30-6:30. It pairs boys in third, fourth, and fifth grade with adult and middle school mentors to help boys get excited about reading. 22 students attended the first meeting, along with 20 mentors. Some mentors were parents or grandparents; some were school staff members or volunteers. Two police deputies came to support the boys in their reading as well. Four sixth graders from NAMS who were involved in the club when they were at McCrary came back to join the fun, along with five boys from the Mustache Fraternity at NAMS. We are so thankful for all of the community support!

2) NAMS Family Picnic held

The 2nd Annual NAMS Family picnic was held indoors on Saturday, September 26th. Families enjoyed a meal of hotdogs and chips from Dixie Express. Families also participated in several activities together such as corn hole, dancing, basketball, Hebrew Dodge ball and watching a movie in the NAMS theater. Approximately 300 people attended the event. This is the second year that the school has sponsored the event to thank families for their support and to celebrate students exceeding expected growth on EOG tests.

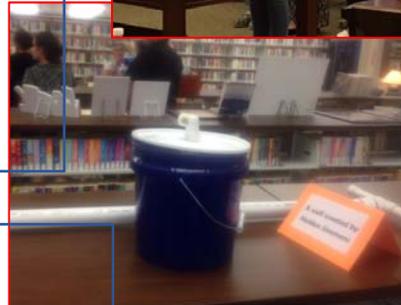

3) Parent events held atGBT

Guy B. Teachey held its first Parent Night On Monday, September 14 and Tuesday, September 15. Teachers in grades Kindergarten through Fifth grades held individual Parent Meetings in their classrooms. Parents gained a clear understanding of grade level expectations for their child. Teachers provided opportunities for parents to learn more about learning resources to be utilized at home. Parents signed up to join Class DOJO with their child's teacher in order to promote strong communication between the teacher and parent. Record number of families came out to participate as support staff provided child care while parents attended the meetings.

4) SAMS Parent Night held at library

This year's One Book, One School selection at SAMS is A Long Walk to Water. During this year's PTO Night, parents gathered at the Randolph Public Library last week to hear from students about what they have learned from this book. Several students had projects, both digital and hand-made, on display that they created as a part of the many activities associated with the book study. This book was chosen this year because of its focus on global awareness and issues related to current events. It provided an opportunity for students to make connections across the curriculum. Additionally they began to reflect on the experiences of others and the possible impact that they can have in their communities.

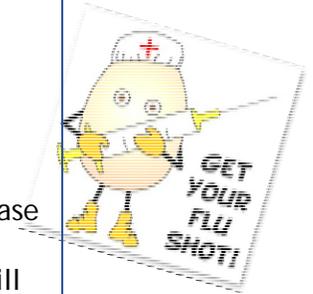

5) AAEOP Fundraiser underway

The Asheboro Association of Educational Office Professionals launched their fall fundraiser to support their scholarship program. RADA Cutlery orders will be taken through October 30th and items will be delivered by mid-November. If you are interested in placing an order, please fill out the order form that is attached to the catalog and send to any AAEOP member or your school secretary, along with your payment.

6) ACS Flu Shot Clinic to be held November 5th

All those interested in getting the Flu Shot, please mark your calendar for November 5th. Clinics will be held at the Central Office and NAMS.

7) Speech Pathologist complete screenings

The ACS speech pathologists completed mass hearing screenings for all first, third, sixth and ninth graders. Over 1300 students' hearing was screened. Pictured are Roxanne Thomas(student intern), Deana McQuitty, Janna Coble, Laura Trogdon, Laura Roberts, Amanda Carter and Wendy Falkowski.
