Middle School Tours for Current 5th Grade Families

Asheboro City Schools will offer school tours and information sessions at North Asheboro and South Asheboro Middle Schools during September and November. Current 5th grade students and families are encouraged to attend to hear valuable information to make for a smooth transition from elementary to middle school.

Tours and information sessions will take place at NAMS and SAMS on:

Wednesday, September 27 from 6 - 7 p.m.

Tuesday, November 7 from 6- 7 p.m.

Asheboro City Board of Education Earns Silver Bell Award

The Asheboro City Board of Education was presented with the 2017 North Carolina School Board Association Silver Bell Award. The Silver Bell Award recognizes boards where every member has actively worked towards meeting their 12 hours of training during the July 1 through June 30 timeframe. Chairman Kyle Lamb accepted the award on behalf of the board. The Silver Bell Award reflects school board member's commitment to training excellence for the 2016-2017 NCSBA Academy Year.

AHS Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony FRIDAY

Asheboro High School is pleased to announce the 2017 Athletics Hall of Fame inductees. This is the 14th year of the Hall of Fame, first established as part of Asheboro City Schools centennial celebrations. The official induction will take place on Friday, September 29th during half-time of the Asheboro High School and Southern Alamance football game. We look forward to seeing you there!

AHS DECA Kicks Off School Year with Breakfast with a Buddy Interest Meeting

Asheboro High School DECA hosted "Breakfast with a Buddy," their membership information gathering for potential DECA students. AHS DECA Leadership includes Co-Presidents, Andrew Cox and Ashley Holland. Miriam Rico and Skyy Nunn serve as secretary and treasurer. Approximately 30 students attended the meeting.

Congrats to AHS Students Selected for Student LIFT

The Student LIFT Class kicked off the 2017-2018 program with an Orientation held on September 6th. Student Leadership Information For Tomorrow, LIFT, is a program sponsored by the Asheboro/Randolph Chamber of Commerce. The program, in its 22nd year, offers twenty-six rising high school sophomores and juniors who reside in Randolph County the opportunity to learn more about the area through day-long sessions following a ropes course. Students from Asheboro High School include: Will Clauser; Mary Cate Kovash, Georgia Shipley, and Lauren Smith.

Way to Go Luke Hurley!

Luke Hurley, an eighth grade student at South Asheboro Middle School, placed second in the Chemistry division at the North Carolina Science and Engineering Fair last March. The event featured regional science fair winners from across the state. First and second place state winners were nominated to compete in the Broadcom Master's Program, a nation-wide science fair for middle school students. We are incredibly proud of Luke's accomplishments. Way to go!

NCCAT Training Opportunities

North Carolina educators have several opportunities from September through January to attend the North Carolina Center for the Advancement of Teaching (NCCAT), a recognized national leader in professional development programming for teachers. Fall registration is open now and can be found at this link – <http://www.nccat.org/programs/calendar-seminars>

Randolph Health to Host FREE Pediatric Speech Screening

Guardian ad Litem Program

The Guardian ad Litem program of Randolph County has a great need for volunteers. Could you be a voice for a child in need in Randolph County? Guardian Ad Litem volunteers advocate for abused and neglected children who are involved in court proceedings. Right now there are many children in the custody of the Randolph County Department of Social Services. These children have been removed from their home due to abuse or neglect. Stand up today to say, "I am for the Child" and contact Tony Greene at the Randolph Co. Guardian Ad Litem Program at 336-328-3170 or email Tony.L.Greene@nccourts.org.
