Congratulations to our 2017-18 Teachers of the Year

We are excited to announce the 2017-18 school-level Teachers of the Year. These phenomenal educators have been selected because of their commitment to excellence in serving our students in Asheboro City Schools.

Bethany Adams - SAMS

Ryan Gibbs - NAMS

Jonas Hancock - GBT

Megan Joyce - DLL

Laura King - CWM

Anna Lowe - AHS

Mallory Nye - LP

Marie Peele - ECDC

Mary Jo Przybyłowski - BAL

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR AWESOME
TEACHERS!

Lindley Park Read Across America Celebrations

Lindley Park had over 20 community volunteers participate in the school's Read Across America Week celebration! Every classroom, K-5, had at least one mystery reader join them!

NAMS Hosts Police Appreciation Day

Students and staff at North Asheboro Middle School showed their appreciation for our partners in law enforcement two Fridays ago during their Police Appreciation Day.

Two Summer Workshops for Teachers

On behalf of UNC Program for the Humanities, two professional opportunities are being offered this summer. Please contact Christie Hinson Norris, Director of K-12 Outreach with NC Public Schools First at cnorris@unc.edu for additional information if needed.

1. Carolina Oral History Teaching Fellows in Civil Rights | June 19-21, 2017 and July 26, 2017 | UNC-Chapel Hill

This unique program will provide fifteen middle and high school teachers from around the state with an intensive exploration of how to utilize oral histories in the K-12 classroom in effective, meaningful, and creative ways. This year's focus will be on oral histories from the Civil Rights Movement. Teachers will receive a 4.0 CEUs & $550 post-participation. For program details and application information, go to <https://humanities.unc.edu/ck12/upcoming-trainings/#cohtf>

2. The 2017 William Friday Teachers Seminar - Carolina Voices: Exploring the Diverse History & Heritage of the Tar Heel State | Sunday, July 16 – Tuesday, July 18, 2017 | UNC-Chapel Hill's Wilson Library

For details and to access the application, go to <https://humanities.unc.edu/ck12/upcoming-trainings/#cv>

Teachey Hosts Career Week

During Teachey's Career Week, students had fun learning about college and careers.

Career Week at Teachey

Monday, March 6th- Career Dress Up Day.

Tuesday, March 7th- College Shirt Day.

Wednesday, March 8th- High School Shirt Day.

Thursday, March 9th- Career Day guest speakers

Friday, March 10th- Teachey Pride Day

Transfer Process Open Now!

Need to make sure your student is enrolled in Asheboro City Schools for the 2017-18 school year? The process is now open! An application for admission to Asheboro City Schools must be completed between 3/1-6/1. If this is the first year you are applying for release or admission, it is important you first go on-line and complete Randolph County School's paperwork for release first and then see Tena Lester to complete Asheboro City Schools form. As an FYI - releases from Randolph County Schools must be completed between 2/15- 3/30.

Watch Out for PHISHING Emails!

Please be aware many school districts across North Carolina have received emails requesting personal information. Please keep in mind when checking email that our IT department will never send you an upgrade link for any software through an email and they will never ask you to reset your password via email. If you receive questionable emails, please contact IT immediately.

Dates for the Calendar

3/13 – Greensboro Symphony to perform for 4th and 5th grade students at the Performing Arts Center.

3/14 – Middle School Festival Band Concert at 7:30 p.m. at the Asheboro High School Performing Arts Center.

3/16 – Band Concert, 7:30 p.m., Performing Arts Center

3/17 – Wax Museum at Teachey Elementary

All Comet Challenge

The All Comet Challenge will take place on Friday, April 28! This event will feature a walk/run event plus several field events for families to participate! By completing all events at the All Comet Challenge, students will be named an All Comet Challenge Champions! Registration will be open from March 1 – 31. The entry fee is $5 per person and $25 for a family of five or more. The fee covers admission and a t-shirt. Food will be for sale at the event.
