This is NAMS

North Asheboro Middle School teachers, Vincent Dave and Adrianna Paschal, spearheaded an event at NAMS this year that the school hopes will become an annual event. Students, teachers, and families celebrated an evening of food, history, artifacts, and stories handed down many different generations about the various cultures that make up the NAMS school community.

AHS Students Selected for Global Navigator Scholarships

Congrats to four Asheboro High School Global Navigators who have been awarded $22,940 in scholarship money! This summer these students will learn a second language, undertake service projects, and study a topic like global entrepreneurship in another country and culture on CIEE's high school study abroad programs. From China to the Dominican Republic, Spain to Chile – student Global Navigators are choosing from 27 destinations worldwide for their adventures of a lifetime. AHS Global Navigators include:

- Karla Estrada Perez – Spanish Language Intensive in Alicante, Spain;
- Makayla Hunter – Arabic Language & Moroccan Culture in Rabat, Morocco;
- Carolina Leon-Valderrama – German Language & Culture in Berlin, Germany;
- Noah Young – Italian Language & Culture in Ferrara, Italy.

Randolph Sports Council Recognizes AHS Student-Athletes

Congratulations to Madlin Muralles and Marlon McCorey for being named Randolph Sports Council's Scholarship recipients. They were honored at a dinner last Monday night at Snyder Farms.

Thomas Tire Offering Grant Opportunities for Teachers

Thomas Time is once again showing their appreciation to teachers by offering five $500 grants and five $200 grants. To complete a grant application, click here. The deadline to apply has been extended until this Friday (May 19). The associates at Thomas Tire thank you for all you do!
