AHS Sophomores Complete Job Shadowing Program

These sophomores have participated all year in the AHS/East Side Local Development Job Shadowing program. They will continue their work-based learning through the summer and throughout their next two years at Asheboro High. Ms. McGowan, AHS Career Development Coordinator, and coordinator of the Job Shadow program plans on adding a new cohort of rising sophomores next year to grow the program as a whole.

Loflin Students Graduate from CARE Program

Donna Lee Loflin's second grade students had their CARE graduation on Thursday, May 10. This was a wonderful culmination of the 12-week program, taught by Deputy Sherry White of the Randolph County Sheriff's Department. The students performed songs, received their graduation certificates, and shared what they had learned with the many family members in attendance.
