

ASHEBORO CITY SCHOOLS

PARTNERSHIPS WITH COMMUNITY AND BUSINESSES

- Asheboro City Police—DARE program, GREAT program, School Resource Officers, traffic crossing guards, safe schools initiatives, drug task force
- Asheboro City Schools Education Foundation—provides over $21,000 annually in scholarships for AHS graduates
- Asheboro City Schools Job Shadowing program—over 150 businesses participate to showcase their business for 8th graders
- Asheboro City Schools Technology Committee
- Asheboro City Schools Career/Technical Education student work based learning experiences—participating employers include Belk, Wal-Mart, Asheboro Cleaners, Clothes Warehouse; clinical experiences through Randolph Hospital and various nursing home facilities; Cooperative Ventures program with elementary schools and 1st Presbyterian Pre-School
- Asheboro/Randolph Chamber of Commerce—new teacher recruitment program, summer internship program for teachers and businesses, Student L.I.F.T. program, Business/Education committee, Get a L.I.F.E. program
- Asheboro and Randolph Rotary Clubs—student leadership programs, scholarship, student visitation program
- Bojangles—student incentive programs
- Boys and Girls Club—after school program including mentoring and tutoring
- CENTURYLink—sponsored Superintendent's Academic Achievement Award
- City of Asheboro—various recreation programs, Pride in Asheboro art contest for 3rd graders, emergency services
- Chick-fil-A—student incentive programs, school fundraisers, teacher appreciation week donations, kindergarten screening t-shirts
- Communities in Schools—mentoring program in secondary schools, Back Pack Pals program, attendance incentives, and more

- Courier-Tribune—Newspapers in Education program, district spelling bee sponsor, athletic tournaments
- Cross Roads Baptist Church—tutoring program with Guy B. Teachey School
- CUOC—volunteer opportunities for NOVA academy students
- Daily Bread Soup Kitchen—volunteer opportunities for NOVA academy students
- Energizer—battery donations
- First Baptist Church—Coleridge Apartments after school tutoring program, child care class internships, AHS volunteers
- First United Methodist Church—tutoring/mentoring program with McCrary School
- Girl Scouts—special troops that meet at various elementary school sites
- Golden Corral—student incentives
- Hanover Apartments—discounts for new teachers
- Hardee's—student incentive coupons
- Hyosung (previously Goodyear)—year end picnic location for SAMS
- Kiwanis—"Terrific Kids" program, shoes donations, scholarship program
- Knights of Columbus—Operation LAMB
- Lion's Club—eye glasses donations
- Lowe's Foods—food donations
- Mark III – Teacher of the Year banquet sponsor
- McDonald's—student incentive coupons
- Mentors and community judges for Asheboro High School Senior Projects
- Mount Shepherd Retreat Center – host 3rd grade science field day
- News & Record—Newspapers in Education

- North Carolina Zoo—Uganda project, AHS Zoo School and other curriculum projects
- North Ridge Church – tutoring and mentoring program at Balfour School
- PAGE of Asheboro (Partners for the Advancement of Gifted Education) – enrichment opportunities for students
- Pilot’s Club—bicycle safety and helmet donations
- Pizza Hut—student reading incentive program
- Pugh Oil—athletic donations
- Randolph Arts Guild—various arts programs, including Rag Bag Players drama productions, Touring Theater Ensemble, Greensboro Symphony
- Randolph Community College—Even Start program, Huskins program, college transfer courses, adult high school diploma program, etc.
- Randolph County Economic Development Corporation—summer internship program for teachers and businesses
- Randolph County Children & Youth Interagency Council
- Randolph County Cooperative Extension and 4-H—curriculum support for various projects such as hatching chicks, NAMS Green Leprechauns club
- Randolph County Government—emergency services coordination and management
- Randolph County Health Department—immunization and health support for students, Health Advisory Task Force
- Randolph County Juvenile Crime Prevention Council—Teen Court, Teen Restitution program, Juvenile Day Reporting Center
- Randolph County Partnership for Children—preschool and family literacy programs
- Randolph County Schools—Health Advisory Task Force, bus garage, professional development, crisis management planning
- Randolph County Sheriff’s Department—CARE program, Sheriff’s Academy
- Randolph County Social Services—referrals for child abuse, permanency planning for child placement

- Randolph Hospital—company doctor, worker’s compensation, employee screenings and inoculations, educational programs for students and staff (e.g., Teddy Bear Fair), kindergarten screening t-shirts
- Relay for Life—community fund raising for cancer research
- REMC—Bright Ideas grants
- Roll-a-bout—school fund raisers
- Sandhills Mental Health Department—support programs for students and families
- Senior Holiday Luncheon—a Christmas holiday luncheon for senior citizens with a student program and door prizes donated by various businesses (Avon, Blue Mist Bar-B-Q, Burge Flower Shop, CDK Designs, Henry James Bar-B-Q, Ink ‘n Stitches, NC Zoo, ReMax, and The Flying Pig)
- St. Joseph’s Catholic Church—after school tutoring program for Donna Lee Loflin ESL students
- Timken—technology support and matching grant opportunities
- Trees Asheboro – variety of earth/environmental curriculum projects
- United Way—community fund raising for special service agencies
- Village Printing—paper donations
- Wal-Mart—“Tools for Schools” program; WalMart Teacher of the Year program
- YMCA—after school SOS programs for middle school students

NOTE: This list is continually being updated, and may not include all current partnerships, both formal and informal.