Asheboro High School BAND-O-RAMA set for October 24th

ASHEBORO – Asheboro High School’s annual Band-O-Rama will be held on Tuesday, October 24th at 7:30pm and will feature the entire marching band and color guard, approximately 200 students, the largest marching band in the state of North Carolina. They will be performing their half-time show, along with crowd pleasing music frequently heard in the stands at the Blue Comet football games.

“We are in our 15th year for Band-O-Rama and the event continues to grow more and more each year,” said Phil Homiller, Asheboro High School Director of Bands. “This event helps raise funds for the Asheboro High School Band Boosters Club, so that we are able to give scholarships to students to attend our annual band trip to New York City or to help students with uniforms or equipment repair. This event is also a great way to highlight music from our marching season and bring our families together.”

The community is encouraged to attend this special Asheboro High School Marching Band event in the Performing Arts Center. Tickets are $7 at the door and all proceeds will benefit the Asheboro High School Band scholarship program.
