Asheboro High School Booster Club Hosts Annual Drawdown Fundraiser

ASHEBORO – Calling all supporters of the Blue Comet community! The Asheboro High School Booster Club invites you to the annual Drawdown fundraiser which helps to provide funding in support of the Asheboro High School student-athletes.

“This special event is always an exciting time,” said Richard Schoenberger, president of the Asheboro High School Booster Club. “The Drawdown allows us a chance to reconnect with the entire Blue Comet community and show support for the incredible athletics program at Asheboro High School,” added Schoenberger.

The annual fundraiser will take place on Saturday, March 25 at 6 p.m. at AVS Banquet Centre, 2045 N. Fayetteville Street in Asheboro. Tickets are $100 and cover the cost of two dinners (two guests). Guests will be treated to dinner and have an opportunity to purchase a variety of gift baskets, signed sports memorabilia, and other items from silent and live auctions. There will also be a chance for attendees to win a grand prize cash pot worth $3,000, furniture from Klausner Home Furnishings, and an electronics package from Aarons, Inc.

To purchase tickets or to learn more, please contact Assistant Athletic Director, Ben Heckethorn by sending emails to bheckethorn@asheboro.k12.nc.us or by calling Asheboro High School Booster Club President, Richard Schoenberger at (336) 908-1315.
